Mrs. Roland Wayne Lee

Rachel Richardson Wed To Roland Wayne Lee

Miss Alice Rachel Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Richardson, of Pamplin, and Roland Wayne Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Lee, of Appomattox, were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Piney Ridge Methodist Church, Pamplin.

The Rev. Gorl Paugh, minister of the Pamplin Charge, assisted by the Rev. John Leitner, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Dan Harvey and John Hall, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta featuring lace flower appliques on the V neckline of her lace bodice and wide lace panels of her full skirt which swept into a cathedral train. Her tiered veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearls, and she carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Henry Richardson was her sister-in-law's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Parsons, Lynchburg, and Miss Barbara Jen Lee, Appomattox, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Nancy Carol Ranson, Pamplin, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

W. Murrell Roulon, Concord, was best man. Ushers were Earl Agee, Appomattox, and B. G. Richardson, Pamplin.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, both graduates of Appomattox High School, will live in Appomattox after their return from a southern trip.

14,763 Books Read In '62

Appomattox County Library reports that during the year of 1962 a total of 14,763 books were circulated from the main reading room. The month of October was the heaviest month for reading with a total of 2,042 books checked out. With a population of 9,148 people in the county, this makes an average of about 1.5 books read per person.

This really does not present a true picture of the reading efforts in the county, because no record is kept actually of the number of times a book is circulated or read when they are taken into the county schools. For example, one pupil at the Vera School, Teresa Ragland, one of our best readers in the 4th grade has read 150 books which have been taken to Vera school. Other than the personal reading record which her teachers keep for her record, the county Library has no circulation number on this other than the one time it is counted when the original book is taken from the county library to Vera school.

Adults continue to respond to our services. Mrs. Verna Conner, who takes requests for books, says in her summary of the year that the following titles have been the most favored ones for 1962:

Fiction: "Devil Water" by Anya Seton; "Kirkland Revels"— Victoria Holt; "To Kill a Mocking-bird" — Harper Lee; "Savanna" — Janise Holt Giles; "The Cactus and the Crown" — Catherine Gavin; "The Incredible Jones" — Sheila Burnford; "A Shade of Difference" — Allen Drury; "Spencer's Mountain" — Earl Hamner, Jr.; "The Pale Horse" — Agatha Christie.

Non-Fiction: "Dr. Tom Dooley, My Story" — by Thomas Dooley; "Edge of the Night" —Thomas Dooley; "Before I Sleep" — by Thomas Dooley; "Through Gates of Splendor" — Elizabeth Elliott; "The Savage, my Kinsman" — Elizabeth Elliott; "Beyond Ourselves" — by Catherine Marshall "A Woman Wants God" — Mary Lou Lacy; "And God Wants People" — by Mary Lou Lacy; "Kitchen Communion" — by Cornelia Renfree; "Where the Heart Is" — by Elizabeth B. de Trevino.

The combination of a good mind and a good book is hard to beat. International Paper interviewed 100 high school graduates who had been awarded academic scholarships. In one month, 9 out of 10 read at least one book.

If you tell your child he MUST read, he'll probably think of it as a chore. Here are two ways to make your child WANT to read:

1. Find him books that match his interests. If he likes airplanes or sports, get him a couple of books in these subjects give him a chance to become absorbed. Before long he'll be reading and enjoying all kinds of books.

2. Take your child to the local Appomattox County Library. Show him where things are. Ask the librarian to show him how to use the Card Catalog. Your Library is open Monday through Friday — 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

A Welcome awaits you there— and adventure for

"Here's an adventure! What waits
Beyond these closed, mysterious gates?
Whom shall I meet, where shall I go
Beyond the lovely land I know?
Above the sky, across the sea?
What shall I learn and feel and be?
Open strange doors, to good or ill!
I hold my breath a moment still
Before the magic of your look.
What will you do to me, O Book"?
